

The 10 Best Villas To Rent in Cape Town

By Inside Guide

Atzaró Cape Town

Where Oranjezicht

Sleeps 14

The setting A dramatic glass eyrie perched on the divide between Table Mountain's wild slopes and the city, you can't better the views from this four-storey luxury villa. Watch the clouds wisping over the mountain top from the kitchen and living areas, gaze at Lion's Head, Signal Hill and the harbour as you laze on the pool deck, and soak up 360-degree Mother City views throughout. Furnished with beautifully crafted natural wood pieces and light and breezy colours, the interiors blend easily into the surrounding nature.

The lodgings

- 2 master suites with ensuite bathroom, emperor-size bed, private lounge and terrace
- 5 suites with ensuite bathroom, king/twin or queen bed, and terrace or lounge area
- 2 guest bathrooms
- open-plan living spaces with fireplace, 14-seater dining table, drinks bar
- smart TV, music and entertainment system
- fully equipped kitchen
- outdoor lounging areas
- gardens and terraces
- swimming pool and large deck
- braai area and outdoor dining
- wellness suite with yoga studio, treatment room, sauna and juice bar
- gym with running, cycling and stepping machines, and weight training
- house manager, cleaners, food shopping and laundry services
- breakfast, welcome drinks and canapés
- air-conditioning
- off-street parking for 8 cars

Good to know Nothing is too big or too small for general manager, Xander, who will go out of his way to ensure your needs are met.

Child friendly? Yes

Pet friendly? Yes

Wifi? Yes

Cost From R33 750 per night (depending on season; minimum 3 nights)